Manufacturing of discontinued products will cease at year-end.

We understand the complications created by product and color discontinuations and have made every effort to keep these to a minimum, in addition to providing you this advanced notification.

In addition, effective immediately, we will cease placing "Do Not Mix" stickers on cartons of CertainTeed Siding Charcoal Gray and Pacific Blue panels and soffit. All cartons in these two colors will contain new formulation and should not be mixed with production prior to March 2022.

We have some exciting new offerings planned for next year, which we look forward to sharing with you during planning sessions through the end of the year.

Once again, thank you for your continued support of CertainTeed.

Sincerely,
